What our customers say

"After switching to Traidcraft tea, coffee and sugar, we can't understand why we didn't do it earlier. The products are cost-effective without compromising on quality and it's fantastic to be able to support fair trade through our business."
Colette Moscati, Bourne Business Consulting LLP

"We used to buy fairtrade tea, coffee and toilet roll from our stationery supplier, but after doing some research found that the Traidcraft online shop was cheaper with free delivery on all orders over £50. The service given is excellent and ordering online couldn't be simpler. Thank you."
Sam Stanford, FRC Group

From a tea producer

"Any time is tea time in Africa. Tell the people in the UK, by taking that Fairtrade cup of tea or coffee at work it is going to bring bread to the tables of the producers. It is going to make them educate their children. It is going to make them more employment and they are going to elevate their standards of living."
