

Book a speaker

Traidcraft's network of volunteer speakers across the UK can deliver an interesting presentation about fair trade and our work fighting poverty through trade. We can also explain the many ways you can get involved.

"The students really enjoyed the presentation... it was very appropriate and allowed the students to easily access the information."
Sir Charles Parsons School, Newcastle

To request a speaker

Please fill in our online form