

Information for project partners

We are committed to working in collaboration with other organisations that have expertise and experience in the kind of work we do. We believe that by working together and sharing knowledge, we can ultimately achieve more impact.

It also helps us avoid duplicating work already being carried out by others.

All our projects in developing countries are implemented in partnership with local organisations that are familiar with the situation on the ground and have first-hand knowledge of the issues to be tackled. This builds local capacity, ensures that projects are appropriate to the local context, and increases the long-term sustainability of project impacts.

We also often work with other international NGOs to implement our projects, particularly those that bring specific areas of expertise that we ourselves might not have. This ensures our projects have the greatest possible impact, and enables to learn from the experience and expertise of others.
