

Reports on purchasing practices

Reports

Win Win: Achieving Sustainable Procurement with the Developing World (January 2010)

This report sets out a framework of guidance to help the developed world "buy better" from the developing world using economic, social and environmental performance as key success indicators.

Download Win Win: Achieving Sustainable Procurement with the Developing World as a PDF

Material Concerns: How responsible sourcing can deliver the goods for business and workers in the garment industry (October 2008)

This report demonstrates how retailers in the garment sector can improve working conditions in their supply chains as well as achieving commercial benefits. It is underpinned by research conducted in Bangladesh, Cambodia, China and Hong Kong.

Download the Material Concerns report \(PDF\)

If you find the text too small, we also have a single page view version \(PDF\)

Taking the Lead (May 2008)

This report is a guide to good practice, highlighting companies who are already demonstrating consideration for responsible purchasing.

Download Taking the Lead as a PDF.

Download the supporting tables as a PDF.

Towards a Sustainable Cocoa Chain: Power and possibilities within the cocoa and chocolate sector (May 2008)

This report sets out the challenges in the cocoa supply chain and provides solutions for business, public authorities and the governments of Ghana and the Ivory Coast. These recommendations aim to make the cocoa sector more sustainable.

Download Towards a Sustainable Cocoa Chain \(PDF\)

Download Towards a Sustainable Cocoa Chain \(Dutch PDF\)

Download Towards a Sustainable Cocoa Chain \(French PDF\)

Download Towards a Sustainable Cocoa Chain \(Spanish PDF\)

A Fair Cup: towards better tea buying (October 2007)

This report looks at the complex supply chain bringing together some of the world's most powerful companies with some of its most vulnerable farmers. This report considers the UK element of the supply chain, and suggests ways that tea buyers, as well as investors, consumers and the UK government can contribute to more responsible purchasing.

Download A fair cup as a PDF

A Fresh Perspective: sourcing vegetables from developing countries (June 2007)

This report draws on research in Kenya with exporters, workers and small-holder farmers and suggests recommendations to company buyers, the UK government, consumers and investors.

Download A Fresh Perspective as a PDF.

Buying Matters. Consultation: Sourcing fairly from developing countries (February 2006)

Why are the buying decisions made by companies having an impact on poverty? Includes 'indicators for responsible purchasing'.

Download Buying Matters \(PDF\)

Download Buying Matters \(Greek PDF\)

Download Buying Matters \(Serbian PDF\)

Download Buying Matters \(Spanish PDF\)

Briefings

Are International Supply Chains increasing poverty? (April 2005)

Find out how the international supply chains which underpin the way we trade increase poverty and how this could be changed.

Download the PDF of Are International Supply Chains increasing poverty?

Get interactive

- For a more interactive introduction to our work in this area play The Buying Game.

To help new and junior buyers understand purchasing and supply chain issues in an enjoyable and engaging way, we have teamed up with purchasing professionals CIPS to launch an interactive online supply chain game.