

West Highland Way

One of the most spectacular long-distance walks in the UK, the West Highland Way is 152km (95 miles) long. The walk links Milngavie on the outskirts of Glasgow to Fort William at the foot of Ben Nevis, following the shores of the stunningly beautiful Loch Lomond.

Date: 09/05/2009
Until: 14/05/2009
Type of Event: Fundraising event
Location: Scotland

How to book

1. Register to download the information pack and booking form.
2. Return the booking form to our partner Charity Trek.
3. When your booking is confirmed, we will send you a fundraising pack. There is no minimum sponsorship just raise as much as you can.

As part of the Traidcraft Active team, you will receive:

- Fundraising guide
- Fairtrade, organic Traidcraft T-shirt
- Access to our web forum

The trip is run by our partner Charity Trek and costs 535 which includes:

- Five nights B&B
- Packed lunches on days one and six
- Transport from Glasgow and return as desired
- Tea and sandwiches in Fort William at the end of the walk
- Transfer of belongings between locations
- The services of one or more fully qualified guides throughout the duration of the walk

We look forward to having you on the Traidcraft Active team!

Book your place now or find out more

- Register for the West Highland Way

Register your interest and access Charity Trek's registration pack

- Still got a question? Check out our FAQs