

India Highlights Meet the People Tour

This long-established tour is designed to provide you with an insight into the diversity of this fascinating country while visiting several Traidcraft suppliers and seeing the role and impact of fair trade first hand across foods and crafts producers.

Date: 14/10/2012
Until: 28/10/2012
Type of Event: Traidcraft Meet the People Tour
Location: India

We will travel to the three corners of India, from Delhi and the magical Taj Mahal in Agra, to cochin in the south before finishing in Kolkata.

We will meet Traidcraft suppliers of crafts, including stone sculptors in Agra and producers of stem ginger in the luscious setting of Kerala.

Visits to India's spectacular temples and monuments and the opportunity to get to know the people behind fair trade in their homes and in the workplace, provide you with an unique insight into this fascinating country.

Tour highlights

Highlights of the tour include:

- time with Traidcraft producers and other projects
- tours to sites of historic interest and temples to learn more of the culture
- a visit to the celebrated Taj Mahal, one of the wonders of the world
- the chance to visit people in their homes
- opportunities to discuss and learn about a wide variety of issues
- the chance to be part of a small group of like-minded individuals

What our previous participants say

"The trip has to rate as the best thing I've ever done."

Meet the producers

One of the groups you will be visiting is Tara Projects, a non-profit organisation based in Delhi, which works with over 25 community-based groups of artisans in Northern India.

They have been supplying Traidcraft for 20 years. Tara's objective is to help craft workers to achieve self-sufficiency by providing income-generating opportunities and developing marketing skills.
