Our journey starts in the Northern Cape on the Orange River and heads south through bleak and beautiful Namaqualand into the Western Cape where we explore the wine region, Cape Town and its surrounding attractions.

What our previous participants say

"Thank you for your part in what has been our best ever travel experience."

Meet the producers

One of the groups you will be visiting is Eksteenskuil Agricultural Co-operative (EAC) - an association of farmers, many of whom have suffered forced relocation during the years of apartheid.

Vine crops are a solution for the farmers, who often don't own the title deeds to their land. Traidcraft now purchases a significant proportion of EAC's vine fruits for its Geobars and muesli.
