

For church press

Traidcraft is a Christian response to poverty; this is one of the foundation principles which guide our mission of fighting poverty through trade. With more than 80% of our core supporters active churchgoers, we have a strong presence in the Christian community, although we work with people of all faiths or none.

Peter Collins is our Church Relations Manager responsible for maintaining and extending our links with faith groups and the religious press in the UK. You can contact him on 0191 497 6465 or at peterc@traidcraft.co.uk.

Church press releases

➤ Put the kettle on, say church leaders

Methodist churches across the UK have been urged to put on the kettle – as a practical and effective way of supporting international development. 20

October 2010

➤ New Traidcraft range provides valuable lifeline

The UK fair trade market provides a valuable lifeline for the world's developing producers and this autumn's Traidcraft catalogue represents the skills, 9 talents and harvests of producer groups from across the developing world.

August 2010

➤ Traidcraft at the Methodist Conference

"We're with you all the way!", was the encouraging greeting from the Methodist President, the Rev David Gamble, when he welcomed Traidcraft to the 7 2009 Methodist Conference, in Wolverhampton.

August 2009

Articles for the church press

➤ Thirty years of achievement – but there's more to be done!

When Traidcraft was founded 30 years ago as a Christian response to the scandal of world poverty, few could have imagined the impact it would have 27 on the world of business and commerce.

January 2010

See more articles for the church press

See more church press releases